Memorandum of Understanding

(2022-23)

Between

Bharati Vidyapeeth's New Law College, Kolhapur
And
The Bahá'í Academy (A Recognized Institution of Shivaji University), Panchgani, Dist. Satara, Maharashtra

In Relation to the Programme "Education in Universal Human Values"

Preamble:

Bharati Vidyapeeth's New Law College, Kolhapur and the Bahá'í Academy, Panchgani, recognizing the strengths and achievements of the College in offering opportunities for higher education to hundreds of deserving students from Kolhapur and beyond; and recognizing its high aspiration and commitment to educating future generations to be ethical professionals, creative and informed citizens with strong moral capabilities for personal development and contributing to unity, prosperity and social progress;

And bearing in mind that the Bahá'í Academy, a Recognized Institution of Shivaji University, is an institution engaged in research and action in the field of value education for institutions of higher learning and its commitment to the above aspirations by providing a programme of international standard on Education in Universal Human Values which includes a number of courses for faculty members, administrative/non-teaching staff members, U.G. and P.G. students, as well as research and extension activities; and noting the recognition that the Bahá'í Academy has achieved in providing this programme to institutions of higher learning in Maharashtra and other states, a programme that is universally relevant, with secular modules, prepared by well-qualified national and international educationists and trainers;

And acknowledging that the benefits, to all the stakeholders, of the Programme of Education in Universal Human Values include such benefits to the students as developing core values and attitudes (such as integrity, self-discipline, willingness to learn, flexibility, goal-oriented mindset), employability skills (including attitudinal and affective abilities; team work and decisionmaking) and enhancing communication abilities (such as team discussion, making presentations, consultation, and clear thinking), becoming joyful learners with moral capabilities, leadership abilities and enhanced self-confidence, forming a global perspective and world-view, developing their vision and purpose in life, and serving communities; and In short, they become leaders, but leaders of a new kind; And benefits to the teachers include boosting their professional growth through grooming their capabilities to meet the growing challenges of their professional and social mission, redefining their relationship with students, improving their participatory teaching skills and cooperative/experiential learning competence, overhauling their personalities and working out fresh value-based attitudes towards their institution and co-workers; And benefits to the College include training teachers in cooperative and participatory learning and becoming mentors for the modules of Education in Universal Human Values, implementing meaningful Offline/Online Service Learning Activities/ Community Engagement projects by the students in the College neighborhood and target communities, promoting quality education by meeting some important criteria set by NAAC (as well as NBA), promoting unity of vision and thought among students and staff who begin changing their attitudes towards their responsibilities, enhancing leadership capabilities within the institution to fulfill its vision and mission and implementing innovative community projects

And the tentative annual action plan for the period of this MoU includes the following:

1. Workshops for Faculty Members:

1. Retreat for Principals, Vice-Principals, Coordinators of Education in Universal Human Values
2. Faculty Development Programme on Education in Universal Human Values (3-5 days)
3. Workshop on Developing Moral Capabilities and Professional Skills (5-7 days)

2. Implementing the Bahá'í Academy's Courses (As approved by Shivaji University) and Related Activities for Students in Blended Mode:

- Name of the Course:
1. Fostering Personal Development and Social Progress (FPDSP); Every year one module can be implemented (About 30-35 hours of contact session and 25-30 hours of community project per module)
  2. Leadership for Change (Personal and Community) LFC; Every year one module can be implemented (About 30-35 hours of contact session and 25-30 hours of community project per module)

And for P.G. Students:

1. Abilities, Skills and Healthy Attitudes (ASHA) – (About 50 hours of Contact Sessions and 35 hours of extension projects)
2. Workshops on Human Rights and Human Values- (About 10 hours of contact session and 10 hours of community project)

3. Workshops for Administrative Staff Members:

Creating Environments Based on Trust and Unity (3-5 days)

4. Research Activities:

Research in Value Education (Minor Research Projects and Symposia)

5. Establishment of a Cell for Universal Human Values to initiate, coordinate, evaluate and improve implementation of the Education in Universal Human Values Programme and related activities in the institution.

Therefore the Bharati Vidyapeeth's New Law College, Kolhapur AND The Bahá'í Academy, Panchgani, enter into this MoU which will remain valid for an initial period of 1 year.

Terms and Commitments:

The Bahá'í Academy has developed modules and courses as described above, focusing on Universal Human Values, life skills and abilities, healthy attitudes, and leadership capabilities. These modules and courses include universal principles, cooperative and experiential learning, educational activities and games, personal and people skills and reflection upon current problems and challenges facing India and the world, including the problems faced by the younger generation of university and college students. Hence personal development, family environment, career and professional development, and service to society are the contexts within which the development of human values and soft skills are addressed.

1. Commitment of the Bahá'í Academy, Panchgani, Dist. Satara:

- i. The Academy will conduct the necessary Teachers' Orientation and Refresher Workshops on the modules of courses under this Memorandum as per a schedule to be agreed by the Bahá'í Academy, Panchgani, and Bharati Vidyapeeth's New Law College, Kolhapur. Each faculty member thus trained, called a mentor, will form a Study Group among students and train them as per the course content and methodology (It is preferable that initially the teacher: student ratio for these Study Groups will be about 1:25). The Bahá'í Academy will provide, for a fee, study kits to the students. Alternatively the Academy Resource Persons will conduct sessions at the College or at the Academy for a fee to be mutually agreed by the College and the Academy.
- ii. The Academy will support the Study Groups that may be formed at the College through visits, at least three times per module, by its Programme Officers, to guide and facilitate progress to fulfil the educational objectives of the programme. They make suggestions and recommendations to the teachers / mentors and College authorities in this regard. These visits will be part of this MoU. No honorarium will be provided to the Academy Officers for these visits. Travel expenses and hospitality will be provided to the Academy representatives by the College.
- iii. The Academy will conduct for a nominal fee, assessment and evaluation of the students' progress at the end of each module and prepare Certificates/Diplomas (and transcripts if required) at the end of each course for the deserving students. Certificates will be issued jointly by the Academy and the College.
- iv. Similarly the teachers who mentor these students, the College Principal, as well as the college, receive from the Bahá'í Academy their respective Certificates of Accomplishment.
- v. The Academy in collaboration with the College will carry out one research project per module with the help of College teachers. It will be related to various aspects/impacts of Education in Universal Human Values, and provide the required guidance for the same.

2. Commitment of Bharati Vidyapeeth's New Law College, Kolhapur

- i- The College will form a "Cell for Universal Human Values" at the College. The cell will be composed of a core group of teachers from among the mentors trained by the Bahá'í Academy, and a representative of the Bahá'í Academy.
- ii- The College decides and informs the Bahá'í Academy the number of students and teachers per year who should join the courses under this MoU.
- iii- The College will provide financial support for workshops/FDPs and administrative staff workshops, as well as symposia, and ensures the students' fees for the courses they take will be paid to the Academy at the time of the registration of the students for each course.
- iv- The College will ensure that on completion of their training the trained teachers (who will become mentors for Education in Universal Human Values Programme) form Study Groups of about 25 students each and implement the course among them. Students can take higher modules each subsequent year and achieve higher levels of competence and certification.
- v- The College will ensure that adequate publicity is given to the courses among the students through various means.
- vi- The College will provide a slot of 3-4 hours in its weekly timetable (for about 10 weeks in one or two semesters) and/or a few days campaign in its annual calendar for implementing contact sessions and service learning activities.
- vii- The College will ensure that the mentors' reports and students' assignments are submitted to the Academy on time for evaluation.
- viii- The College nominates a capable and interested member of the Cell for Universal Human Values to be the Programme Coordinator at the College and be the liaison with the Academy.

3. Shared Responsibilities:

- i. Both parties to this Agreement undertake to promote its terms, and implement the same in good faith and in a spirit of mutual co-operation.

- ii. Either or both the parties may propose changes to the implementation strategies, bearing in mind the feedback from mentors and course participants. If these changes are accepted in writing by both parties as adding value to the courses, both organizations will continue to present the courses as joint awards.
- iii. Subject to any financial constraints and any such arrangements as may be necessary to safeguard the confidentiality of any information or documents, the parties agree to provide each other with such documents, information or materials as may be necessary for any activity to be carried out under this Agreement.
- iv. Quality control is the shared responsibility of both the parties, each one in its own sphere of activities and responsibilities.
- v. Both the parties share the right of accepting into the course or dismissing students who desire to join the course.
- vi. Although evaluation and assessment is carried out by the Bahá'í Academy, certificates and transcripts are issued jointly by the College and the Academy.

4. Final Provisions:

- i. This MoU is valid only if within 3 months from its inception the first training programme stipulated in this MoU is implemented.
- ii. The terms of this Agreement may be amended in writing with the written consent of both organizations. The organizations undertake to resolve in good faith any concerns or questions which may arise regarding the terms and implementation of this Agreement.
- iii. Either organization may terminate this MoU by giving three months prior notice in writing to the other party, which shall not however affect any legal rights or obligations which may have been created under this MoU.
- iv. This MoU shall also stand terminated for any reason such as legal processes, Acts of the State or similar such exigencies beyond the normal control of the parties concerned and which disable any of the parties hereto from functioning further.

5. Arbitration:

Any dispute arising between the parties in relation to or in connection with this MOU shall be resolved by mutual negotiations. In case of any unresolved dispute, the parties shall refer the said dispute for arbitration to the sole arbitrator appointed by the Principal of Bharati Vidyapeeth's New Law College, Kolhapur, and the Director of the Bahá'í Academy, Panchgani; and the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both the parties. The provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 shall apply to such arbitration. Such arbitration proceeding shall be held at Panchgani.

Action Plans for 2022-23:

During academic year 2022-23 the following actions will be implemented:

1. Implementing 2-Credit Course on "Fostering Personal Development and Social Progress: Me, My World, My Mission" Course for the second year law students in blended mode.
2. Organizing workshop for the faculty members
3. Organizing retreat for College Principals, Vice-Principals and Coordinators at the Baha'i Academy, Panchgani.
