

Social Transformation Through Dynamic Education

BHARATI VIDYAPEETH'S NEW LAW COLLEGE, KOLHAPUR

(● Permanently Affiliated to the Shivaji University, Kolhapur, ● Recognized under section 2(f) and 12 (b) of the UGC Act, ● Approved by the Bar Council of India and ● Reaccredited with B+ grade by the NAAC)

Near ChitraNagari, Kolhapur (M.S.) 416013

Website - <https://nlckolhapur.bharatividyaapeeth.edu/home> , Email id - bvnlck@gmail.com

Course Outcomes (COs)

LL.B. Programme

These Course Outcomes are drafted in an Outcome-Based Education (OBE) format suitable for NAAC, IQAC, and Shivaji University curriculum documentation.

PRINCIPAL
Bharati Vidyapeeth's
New Law College, Kolhapur

B.A. LL.B. (Five-Year Integrated Course)

Semester I of B.A. LL.B.

Sr. No.	Courses
1	Political Science- I
2	Political Science- II (Public Administration)
3	English-I (Grammar and Usage)

Course Outcomes (COs)

1. Political Science – I

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the meaning, nature, scope, and significance of Political Science as a social science discipline.

CO2: Analyze fundamental political concepts such as State, Sovereignty, Government, Liberty, Equality, Justice, Rights, and Citizenship.

CO3: Examine the origin, evolution, and functions of the State and various forms of government.

CO4: Evaluate major political ideologies and theories relating to democracy, constitutionalism, and governance.

CO5: Interpret the relationship between law, politics, and society in a democratic framework.

CO6: Apply political concepts to understand contemporary political and constitutional developments.

CO7: Develop critical thinking, civic responsibility, and awareness of democratic values and institutions.

2. Political Science – II (Public Administration)

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the meaning, nature, scope, and significance of Public Administration in modern governance.

CO2: Analyze principles and theories of administration and their application in public institutions.

CO3: Examine the structure, organization, and functioning of public administrative systems.

CO4: Evaluate the role of bureaucracy, public policy, leadership, and accountability in administration.

CO5: Interpret administrative processes relating to planning, coordination, supervision, and decision-making.

CO6: Assess contemporary challenges in public administration, including e-governance, transparency, and public service delivery.

CO7: Develop analytical and managerial skills necessary for understanding governance and public administration.

3. English – I (Grammar and Usage)

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Demonstrate proficiency in English grammar, sentence structure, and language usage.

CO2: Apply grammatical rules accurately in written and oral communication.

CO3: Develop vocabulary, comprehension, and language skills necessary for academic and professional communication.

CO4: Identify and correct common grammatical and syntactical errors in English.

CO5: Construct clear, coherent, and effective sentences, paragraphs, and short compositions.

CO6: Improve reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills required for legal and professional studies.

CO7: Develop confidence in communication and effective expression of ideas in academic and legal contexts.

Course Outcome Attributes

The above courses contribute to the attainment of:

- Political and Constitutional Awareness
- Understanding of Governance and Public Administration
- Communication and Language Proficiency
- Critical Thinking and Analytical Skills
- Civic Responsibility and Democratic Values
- Interdisciplinary Learning
- Professional and Academic Communication Skills
- Leadership and Decision-Making Abilities
- Problem-Solving Skills
- Lifelong Learning and Employability

PRINCIPAL
Bharati Vidyapeeth's
New Law College, Kolhapur

Semester II of B.A. LL.B.

Sr. No.	Courses
1	Political Science- III (Organisation & Administration of the State Government)
2	Economics-I (General Principles)
3	History-I (General History)
4	Sociology-I (General Principles)

Course Outcomes (COs)

1. Political Science – III (Organisation and Administration of the State Government)

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the constitutional framework and structure of State Government in India.

CO2: Analyze the powers, functions, and relationship among the Governor, Chief Minister, Council of Ministers, and State Legislature.

CO3: Examine the administrative organization and functioning of State Government departments and agencies.

CO4: Evaluate the role of State administration in governance, policy implementation, and public welfare.

CO5: Interpret constitutional provisions relating to State administration, legislative processes, and Centre-State relations.

CO6: Assess contemporary issues and challenges in State governance and public administration.

CO7: Develop an understanding of democratic governance, accountability, and administrative responsibility at the State level.

2. Economics – I (General Principles)

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- CO1: Explain the basic concepts, nature, scope, and significance of economics.
- CO2: Analyze principles of demand, supply, utility, production, cost, and market mechanisms.
- CO3: Examine different economic systems and their role in resource allocation and economic development.
- CO4: Evaluate factors influencing economic growth, development, and welfare.
- CO5: Interpret economic issues relating to consumption, production, distribution, and exchange.
- CO6: Apply economic principles to understand legal regulations, public policy, and socio-economic problems.
- CO7: Develop analytical skills for assessing economic trends and their impact on society and governance.

3. History – I (General History)

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- CO1: Explain the meaning, scope, and importance of history in understanding society and civilization.
- CO2: Analyze significant historical events, movements, and developments that shaped human civilization.
- CO3: Examine political, social, economic, and cultural transformations across different historical periods.
- CO4: Evaluate the contribution of important leaders, institutions, and movements in historical development.

CO5: Interpret historical sources and evidence to understand past events and their contemporary relevance.

CO6: Assess the influence of historical developments on modern legal, political, and social institutions.

CO7: Develop critical and analytical perspectives for understanding historical processes and societal change.

4. Sociology – I (General Principles)

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the meaning, nature, scope, and significance of sociology as a social science.

CO2: Analyze basic sociological concepts such as society, community, culture, social groups, institutions, and social processes.

CO3: Examine the relationship between individuals, society, and social institutions.

CO4: Evaluate the role of socialization, social control, and social change in maintaining social order.

CO5: Interpret sociological theories and perspectives for understanding social behavior and social problems.

CO6: Apply sociological concepts to analyze contemporary social and legal issues.

CO7: Develop social awareness, critical thinking, and sensitivity towards social diversity and social justice.

Course Outcome Attributes

The above courses contribute to the attainment of:

- Interdisciplinary Knowledge and Understanding
- Political and Administrative Awareness

- Economic and Public Policy Understanding
- Historical and Cultural Perspective
- Sociological and Socio-Legal Understanding
- Critical Thinking and Analytical Skills
- Communication and Problem-Solving Abilities
- Civic Responsibility and Democratic Values
- Social Sensitivity and Ethical Awareness
- Lifelong Learning and Employability

PRINCIPAL
Bharati Vidyapeeth's
New Law College, Kolhapur

Semester III of B.A. LL.B.

Sr. No.	Courses
1	Pol. Science- IV
2	Sociology-II (Special Sociology)
3	Economics-II
4	History-II (Legal History)

Course Outcomes (COs)

1. Political Science – IV

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the nature, scope, and significance of political institutions and political processes in contemporary governance.

CO2: Analyze major political ideologies, theories, and concepts relevant to democratic governance and public administration.

CO3: Examine the structure, functions, and working of political institutions at national and international levels.

CO4: Evaluate contemporary political issues, public policies, and governance challenges from a legal and political perspective.

CO5: Interpret the relationship between law, politics, public administration, and constitutional governance.

CO6: Apply political science concepts to understand legal and constitutional developments in India and abroad.

CO7: Develop critical thinking, analytical skills, and civic awareness necessary for responsible citizenship and legal studies.

2. Sociology – II (Special Sociology)

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the fundamental concepts, theories, and approaches of sociology relevant to law and society.

CO2: Analyze social institutions such as family, religion, education, economy, and polity and their influence on social behavior.

CO3: Examine social stratification, caste, class, gender, and social inequality in contemporary society.

CO4: Evaluate the role of social change, modernization, globalization, and social movements in shaping legal and social structures.

CO5: Interpret the interaction between law, social control, social justice, and social transformation.

CO6: Apply sociological perspectives to analyze contemporary socio-legal issues and public concerns.

CO7: Develop social sensitivity and awareness regarding issues affecting marginalized and vulnerable groups.

3. Economics – II

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain fundamental concepts and principles of economics relevant to legal and public policy studies.

CO2: Analyze economic systems, market structures, demand and supply mechanisms, and resource allocation.

CO3: Examine the role of government in economic planning, regulation, and development.

CO4: Evaluate issues relating to public finance, taxation, inflation, unemployment, poverty, and economic growth.

CO5: Interpret the relationship between economics, law, business, and public policy.

CO6: Apply economic reasoning to understand legal regulations, welfare policies, and socio-economic development.

CO7: Develop analytical skills for assessing economic issues and their impact on society and governance.

4. History – II (Legal History)

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the historical evolution of legal systems and institutions in India.

CO2: Analyze the development of ancient, medieval, and modern legal traditions and their influence on contemporary law.

CO3: Examine the establishment and growth of the judicial system during the colonial period.

CO4: Evaluate the contribution of British legislation and judicial institutions to the development of Indian legal administration.

CO5: Interpret the historical background of important legal enactments and constitutional developments in India.

CO6: Assess the role of historical events, social reform movements, and legal reforms in shaping the Indian legal system.

CO7: Develop a critical understanding of the relationship between law, society, history, and governance.

Course Outcome Attributes

The above courses contribute to the attainment of:

- Interdisciplinary Knowledge and Understanding
- Constitutional and Political Awareness
- Socio-Legal Analysis and Critical Thinking
- Economic and Public Policy Understanding

- Historical and Legal Perspective
- Research and Analytical Skills
- Communication and Problem-Solving Abilities
- Social Responsibility and Civic Engagement
- Ethical and Professional Development
- Lifelong Learning and Employability

PRINCIPAL
Bharati Vidyapeeth's
New Law College, Kolhapur

Semester IV of B.A. LL.B.

Sr. No.	Courses
1	Political Science- V (Foundation of Political Obligations)
2	Political Science- VI (International Relations)
3	English-II

Course Outcomes (COs)

1. Political Science – V (Foundations of Political Obligations)

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the concept, nature, and significance of political obligation in political and legal theory.

CO2: Analyze major theories relating to the origin, justification, and limits of political obligation, including social contract, consent, and authority theories.

CO3: Examine the relationship between the individual, the State, law, rights, and duties in a democratic society.

CO4: Evaluate the philosophical foundations of obedience, civil disobedience, resistance, and political legitimacy.

CO5: Interpret the views of major political thinkers on political authority, justice, liberty, and citizenship.

CO6: Apply political and ethical theories to contemporary issues relating to governance, public authority, and civic responsibility.

CO7: Develop critical thinking and analytical skills for understanding the moral and legal basis of political institutions and obligations.

2. Political Science – VI (International Relations)

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the nature, scope, and significance of International Relations as a field of study.

CO2: Analyze major theories and approaches to International Relations, including realism, liberalism, and idealism.

CO3: Examine the role of nation-states, international organizations, and non-state actors in global politics.

CO4: Evaluate issues relating to international peace, security, diplomacy, foreign policy, and global governance.

CO5: Interpret the role and functions of the United Nations and other international institutions in maintaining international cooperation.

CO6: Assess contemporary global challenges such as terrorism, climate change, human rights, globalization, and regional conflicts.

CO7: Develop an understanding of India's foreign policy and its role in international relations and global affairs.

3. English – II

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Demonstrate advanced proficiency in English language skills required for academic, professional, and legal communication.

CO2: Analyze and interpret literary and non-literary texts with clarity and critical understanding.

CO3: Develop effective writing skills for essays, reports, précis, correspondence, and legal communication.

CO4: Apply appropriate vocabulary, grammar, and style in oral and written expression.

CO5: Enhance reading comprehension, listening, speaking, and presentation skills.

CO6: Communicate ideas, arguments, and information effectively in academic and professional settings.

CO7: Develop confidence and competence in English communication necessary for legal education, advocacy, and professional practice.

Course Outcome Attributes

The above courses contribute to the attainment of:

- Political and Constitutional Understanding
- International and Global Awareness
- Critical Thinking and Analytical Reasoning
- Communication and Language Proficiency
- Ethical and Civic Responsibility
- Interdisciplinary Learning
- Research and Presentation Skills
- Leadership and Decision-Making Abilities
- Professional and Academic Competence
- Lifelong Learning and Employability

PRINCIPAL
Bharati Vidyapeeth's
New Law College, Kolhapur

Three years Law – LL. B.
Five-Year Integrated Course - B.A. LL.B.

Semester I of LL.B.
Semester V of B.A. LL.B.

Sr. No.	Courses
1	Law of Contract - I
2	Constitutional Law -I
3	Law of Torts and C.P. Act
4	Environmental Law
5	Family Law-I

Course Outcomes (COs)

1. Law of Contract – I

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the nature, scope, historical development, and essential principles of the law of contracts under the Indian Contract Act, 1872.

CO2: Identify and analyze the essential elements of a valid contract, including offer, acceptance, consideration, capacity, free consent, legality of object, and lawful consideration.

CO3: Distinguish between valid, void, voidable, contingent, quasi-contractual, and unenforceable agreements.

CO4: Apply legal principles relating to free consent, coercion, undue influence, fraud, misrepresentation, and mistake to practical situations.

CO5: Examine the legal consequences of breach of contract and available remedies under the law.

CO6: Interpret statutory provisions and judicial decisions relating to contract law and apply them to legal problems.

CO7: Develop legal reasoning and problem-solving skills through case analysis and drafting of simple contractual clauses.

2. Constitutional Law – I

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the historical background, making, philosophy, and salient features of the Constitution of India.

CO2: Describe the concept of constitutionalism, rule of law, separation of powers, and federalism.

CO3: Analyze the Preamble, Fundamental Rights, Directive Principles of State Policy, and Fundamental Duties.

CO4: Examine constitutional remedies and the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court and High Courts under Articles 32 and 226.

CO5: Interpret constitutional provisions through landmark judicial decisions and constitutional doctrines.

CO6: Evaluate the relationship between individual rights and state authority in a democratic polity.

CO7: Apply constitutional principles to contemporary legal and socio-political issues.

3. Law of Torts and Consumer Protection Act

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the nature, scope, development, and principles of the law of torts.

CO2: Identify and analyze various tortious liabilities including negligence, nuisance, defamation, trespass, and strict liability.

CO3: Distinguish between tortious liability, contractual liability, and criminal liability.

CO4: Apply legal principles governing remoteness of damage, defenses in tort, and remedies available to aggrieved parties.

CO5: Explain consumer rights and protections available under the Consumer Protection Act, 2019.

CO6: Examine the structure, jurisdiction, and functioning of consumer dispute redressal commissions.

CO7: Analyze consumer disputes and recommend appropriate legal remedies through case studies and practical examples.

4. Environmental Law

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the concept, importance, and development of environmental jurisprudence in India.

CO2: Analyze constitutional provisions relating to environmental protection and sustainable development.

CO3: Interpret major environmental legislations including the Environment (Protection) Act, 1986, Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1974, and Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981.

CO4: Examine the role and powers of environmental regulatory authorities and tribunals.

CO5: Apply principles such as Polluter Pays, Precautionary Principle, Public Trust Doctrine, and Sustainable Development.

CO6: Evaluate landmark environmental judgments and their impact on environmental governance.

CO7: Develop awareness regarding environmental protection, ecological balance, and legal responsibilities of citizens.

5. Family Law – I

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the sources, schools, and development of Hindu and Muslim personal laws.

CO2: Analyze legal provisions relating to marriage, divorce, restitution of conjugal rights, judicial separation, and nullity of marriage.

CO3: Examine laws relating to maintenance, legitimacy, guardianship, and adoption.

CO4: Interpret statutory provisions under the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, Hindu Adoption and Maintenance Act, 1956, and relevant Muslim personal laws.

CO5: Apply legal principles to resolve family disputes through case analysis and problem-solving exercises.

CO6: Evaluate judicial decisions relating to family law and personal laws in India.

CO7: Demonstrate sensitivity towards family relations, gender justice, child welfare, and social realities while applying family law principles.

CO–PO Mapping

The above Course Outcomes contribute to the attainment of Programme Outcomes relating to:

- Legal Knowledge

- Legal Reasoning and Analysis
- Research Skills
- Professional Ethics
- Communication Skills
- Constitutional Values
- Social Justice
- Problem Solving
- Lifelong Learning
- Employability and Professional Competence

PRINCIPAL
Bharati Vidyapeeth's
New Law College, Kolhapur

Semester II of LL.B.
Semester VI of B.A. LL.B.

Sr. No.	Courses
1	Special Contract
2	Constitutional Law – II
3	Family Law - II
4	Environmental Law
5	Professional Ethics

Course Outcomes (COs)

1. Special Contract

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- CO1: Explain the nature, scope, and essential features of special contracts under the Indian Contract Act, 1872.
- CO2: Analyze the legal principles governing contracts of indemnity and guarantee, including rights and liabilities of parties.
- CO3: Examine the law relating to bailment and pledge and apply the rights and duties of bailor, bailee, pawnor, and pawnee to practical situations.
- CO4: Interpret legal provisions relating to agency, creation of agency, authority of agents, and termination of agency.
- CO5: Evaluate contractual relationships arising under special contracts through statutory interpretation and judicial precedents.
- CO6: Apply legal principles to solve practical problems involving indemnity, guarantee, bailment, pledge, and agency.

CO7: Develop analytical and drafting skills required for commercial and contractual transactions.

2. Constitutional Law – II

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the constitutional framework governing Union and State Governments in India.

CO2: Analyze the powers, functions, and relationships among the Legislature, Executive, and Judiciary.

CO3: Examine constitutional provisions relating to the President, Prime Minister, Parliament, Governor, Chief Minister, and State Legislature.

CO4: Interpret constitutional provisions governing Centre-State relations, legislative powers, and emergency provisions.

CO5: Evaluate constitutional doctrines such as judicial review, basic structure, and separation of powers through landmark judgments.

CO6: Analyze constitutional mechanisms relating to amendment of the Constitution and democratic governance.

CO7: Apply constitutional principles to contemporary legal, political, and administrative issues.

3. Family Law – II

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the legal principles governing joint family, coparcenary, and property rights under Hindu Law.

CO2: Analyze laws relating to succession and inheritance under Hindu and Muslim personal laws.

CO3: Interpret provisions relating to wills, gifts, waqf, and testamentary succession.

CO4: Examine statutory provisions under the Hindu Succession Act, 1956 and relevant Muslim personal laws.

CO5: Apply principles of inheritance and succession to practical legal problems and family disputes.

CO6: Evaluate judicial decisions relating to property rights, succession, and inheritance.

CO7: Develop legal reasoning skills for resolving family property disputes in accordance with applicable personal laws.

4. Environmental Law

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the concept, evolution, and significance of environmental law and policy in India.

CO2: Analyze constitutional provisions and judicial approaches relating to environmental protection.

CO3: Interpret major environmental legislations including the Environment (Protection) Act, 1986, Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1974, and Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981.

CO4: Examine the role and functions of environmental regulatory authorities and tribunals.

CO5: Apply environmental principles such as Sustainable Development, Polluter Pays Principle, Precautionary Principle, and Public Trust Doctrine.

CO6: Evaluate landmark environmental judgments and emerging environmental challenges.

CO7: Demonstrate awareness of environmental responsibilities and legal mechanisms for environmental protection.

5. Professional Ethics

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the standards of professional conduct and etiquette prescribed for advocates under the Advocates Act, 1961 and the rules framed by the Bar Council of India.

CO2: Analyze the duties and responsibilities of advocates towards the court, clients, opponents, colleagues, and society.

CO3: Examine ethical issues arising in legal practice and apply professional standards to resolve them.

CO4: Interpret disciplinary mechanisms and professional misconduct provisions applicable to advocates.

CO5: Understand the role and functioning of legal aid, Lok Adalats, and alternative dispute resolution mechanisms.

CO6: Demonstrate professional values such as integrity, fairness, confidentiality, accountability, and social responsibility.

CO7: Develop advocacy skills, professional competence, and ethical decision-making abilities essential for legal practice.

Course Outcome Attributes

The above courses contribute to the development of:

- Legal Knowledge and Understanding
- Constitutional and Social Awareness
- Legal Research and Analytical Skills
- Professional Ethics and Responsibility
- Problem Solving and Decision Making
- Advocacy and Communication Skills
- Environmental and Social Responsibility
- Lifelong Learning and Professional Competence

Semester III of LL.B.
Semester VII of B.A. LL.B.
Sr.No.	Courses
1	Jurisprudence
2	Property Law
3	Company Law
4	Public International Law
5	Criminology

Course Outcomes (COs)

1. Jurisprudence

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the meaning, nature, scope, and significance of jurisprudence and legal theory.

CO2: Analyze various schools of jurisprudence including Natural Law, Analytical, Historical, Sociological, and Realist Schools.

CO3: Examine fundamental legal concepts such as rights, duties, liability, ownership, possession, justice, and legal personality.

CO4: Critically evaluate the relationship between law, morality, justice, and social change.

CO5: Interpret legal theories and philosophical foundations underlying legal systems and institutions.

CO6: Apply jurisprudential concepts to contemporary legal and socio-legal issues.

CO7: Develop critical thinking, analytical reasoning, and legal research skills through the study of legal philosophy.

2. Property Law

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the principles governing transfer of property and ownership rights under the Transfer of Property Act, 1882.

CO2: Analyze legal provisions relating to transfer of property by sale, mortgage, lease, exchange, and gift.

CO3: Examine doctrines governing transfer of property such as election, lis pendens, part performance, and holding out.

CO4: Interpret legal rights and obligations arising from various modes of property transfer.

CO5: Apply statutory provisions and judicial precedents to solve practical issues relating to immovable property.

CO6: Evaluate the legal implications of property transactions and disputes.

CO7: Develop legal drafting and problem-solving skills relating to property documentation and conveyancing.

3. Company Law

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the concept, nature, characteristics, and types of companies under the Companies Act, 2013.

CO2: Analyze the process of incorporation, management, administration, and winding up of companies.

CO3: Examine the roles, powers, duties, and liabilities of promoters, directors, shareholders, and auditors.

CO4: Interpret provisions relating to corporate governance, meetings, resolutions, and regulatory compliance.

CO5: Evaluate legal principles governing corporate finance, share capital, and investor protection.

CO6: Apply company law provisions and judicial decisions to corporate legal issues and case studies.

CO7: Develop professional competency in handling corporate legal and compliance-related matters.

4. Public International Law

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the nature, sources, and development of Public International Law.

CO2: Analyze the rights, duties, and responsibilities of States and other subjects of international law.

CO3: Examine the legal framework governing recognition, state succession, nationality, extradition, asylum, and diplomatic relations.

CO4: Interpret international treaties, customs, conventions, and principles governing international relations.

CO5: Evaluate the role and functioning of international organizations, particularly the United Nations and its agencies.

CO6: Analyze international legal issues relating to human rights, humanitarian law, environmental protection, and international peace and security.

CO7: Apply principles of international law to contemporary global legal challenges and disputes.

5. Criminology

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the nature, scope, objectives, and significance of criminology as a discipline.

CO2: Analyze various theories of crime causation, criminal behavior, and victimization.

CO3: Examine the relationship between crime, society, social control, and criminal justice administration.

CO4: Evaluate the role of police, courts, correctional institutions, and rehabilitation mechanisms in crime prevention.

CO5: Interpret contemporary issues relating to juvenile delinquency, organized crime, cybercrime, white-collar crime, and victimology.

CO6: Assess the effectiveness of correctional measures, punishment theories, and rehabilitation programs.

CO7: Develop critical understanding of crime prevention strategies and policy measures for maintaining social justice and public order.

Course Outcome Attributes

The above courses contribute to the attainment of:

- Legal Knowledge and Professional Competence
- Critical Thinking and Jurisprudential Understanding
- Legal Research and Analytical Skills
- Problem Solving and Decision Making
- Corporate and Property Law Competency
- Global Legal Awareness
- Ethical and Professional Responsibility
- Social Justice and Human Rights Orientation
- Communication and Advocacy Skills
- Lifelong Learning and Employability

Semester IV of LL.B.
Semester VIII of B.A. LL.B.

Sr. No.	Courses
1	Interpretation of Statutes
2	International Human Rights
3	Administrative Law
4	Banking and Insurance
5	Alternative Disputes Resolution (ADR)

Course Outcomes (COs)

1. Interpretation of Statutes

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the nature, purpose, and importance of statutory interpretation in the legal system.

CO2: Analyze various rules and principles of interpretation including the Literal Rule, Golden Rule, Mischief Rule, and Purposive Interpretation.

CO3: Examine internal and external aids to statutory interpretation and their application in judicial decision-making.

CO4: Interpret legal maxims and presumptions used in the construction of statutes.

CO5: Evaluate judicial approaches to interpretation through landmark case laws.

CO6: Apply principles of statutory interpretation to resolve legal ambiguities and practical legal problems.

CO7: Develop legal reasoning, analytical skills, and drafting competence required for legal practice and judicial processes.

2. International Human Rights

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the concept, evolution, and significance of human rights at the national and international levels.

CO2: Analyze major international human rights instruments including the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR), and International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR).

CO3: Examine the role and functions of the United Nations and international agencies in the promotion and protection of human rights.

CO4: Evaluate international and regional mechanisms for the enforcement of human rights.

CO5: Analyze issues relating to women's rights, children's rights, minority rights, refugee rights, and rights of vulnerable groups.

CO6: Assess the relationship between constitutional protections and international human rights standards.

CO7: Apply human rights principles to contemporary legal and social issues at national and global levels.

3. Administrative Law

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the nature, scope, and significance of administrative law in a welfare state.

CO2: Analyze the structure, powers, and functions of administrative authorities and agencies.

CO3: Examine the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness in administrative decision-making.

CO4: Interpret legal principles relating to delegated legislation, administrative discretion, and judicial control of administrative action.

CO5: Evaluate mechanisms of administrative accountability, including judicial review and constitutional remedies.

CO6: Analyze the role of tribunals, commissions, and regulatory bodies in governance.

CO7: Apply administrative law principles to practical issues involving governmental and quasi-governmental authorities.

4. Banking and Insurance Law

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the legal framework governing banking and insurance sectors in India.

CO2: Analyze the rights, duties, and obligations of banks, customers, insurers, and policyholders.

CO3: Examine provisions relating to negotiable instruments, electronic banking, and banking operations.

CO4: Interpret legal principles governing various insurance contracts, including life, marine, and general insurance.

CO5: Evaluate regulatory mechanisms governing banking and insurance institutions, including the role of the Reserve Bank of India and Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India.

CO6: Apply statutory provisions and judicial decisions to resolve banking and insurance disputes.

CO7: Develop practical understanding of banking compliance, financial transactions, and insurance claims management.

5. Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR)

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the concept, objectives, and significance of Alternative Dispute Resolution mechanisms.

CO2: Analyze the legal framework governing arbitration, conciliation, mediation, and negotiation in India.

CO3: Examine the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 and related procedural requirements.

CO4: Evaluate the advantages and limitations of ADR methods compared to traditional litigation.

CO5: Develop skills in negotiation, mediation, and conciliation for effective dispute resolution.

CO6: Apply ADR principles to commercial, civil, family, and institutional disputes.

CO7: Demonstrate professional competence in drafting ADR clauses, settlement agreements, and arbitration-related documents.

Course Outcome Attributes

The above courses contribute to the attainment of:

- Legal Knowledge and Understanding
- Statutory Interpretation and Legal Reasoning
- Human Rights and Constitutional Awareness
- Administrative and Regulatory Competence
- Banking, Financial, and Insurance Law Proficiency
- Negotiation and Dispute Resolution Skills
- Professional Ethics and Responsibility
- Research and Analytical Skills
- Communication and Advocacy Skills
- Employability and Lifelong Learning

Semester V of LL.B.
Semester IX of B.A. LL.B.

Sr. No.	Courses
1	Civil Procedure Code & Limitation Act
2	BSA (Evidence)
3	Labour Law-I (Industrial Laws)
4	Land Laws
5	Drafting, Pleading and Conveyancing

Course Outcomes (COs)

1. Civil Procedure Code and Limitation Act

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the structure, scope, and objectives of civil procedure and the administration of civil justice in India.

CO2: Analyze the provisions relating to jurisdiction of courts, institution of suits, pleadings, parties to suits, and framing of issues under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

CO3: Examine procedures relating to summons, appearance, execution of decrees, appeals, review, revision, and reference.

CO4: Interpret legal principles governing temporary injunctions, interlocutory orders, res judicata, and alternative dispute resolution under civil procedure law.

CO5: Analyze the provisions and objectives of the Limitation Act, 1963 relating to limitation periods, condonation of delay, and computation of limitation.

CO6: Apply procedural laws and limitation principles to practical legal problems and case studies.

CO7: Develop competency in handling civil litigation matters and procedural compliance before courts.

2. Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam, 2023 (Law of Evidence)

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the fundamental principles, nature, and relevance of evidence in judicial proceedings under the Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam, 2023.

CO2: Analyze concepts relating to relevancy, admissibility, burden of proof, presumptions, and estoppel.

CO3: Examine the legal provisions governing oral, documentary, and electronic evidence.

CO4: Interpret rules relating to examination-in-chief, cross-examination, re-examination, and appreciation of evidence.

CO5: Evaluate the evidentiary value of confessions, admissions, dying declarations, expert opinions, and digital records.

CO6: Apply evidentiary principles to judicial proceedings and practical legal situations.

CO7: Develop advocacy and analytical skills necessary for presentation and evaluation of evidence before courts and tribunals.

3. Labour Law – I (Industrial Laws)

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the objectives, development, and significance of labour welfare and industrial jurisprudence in India.

CO2: Analyze the legal framework governing employer-employee relations under major labour legislations and labour codes.

CO3: Examine provisions relating to industrial disputes, trade unions, collective bargaining, strikes, lockouts, lay-offs, retrenchment, and closure.

CO4: Interpret legal principles governing industrial harmony, social justice, and protection of workers' rights.

CO5: Evaluate the role and functions of labour courts, industrial tribunals, and conciliation mechanisms.

CO6: Apply labour law principles to industrial disputes and workplace issues.

CO7: Develop practical understanding of labour law compliance, industrial relations, and dispute resolution processes.

4. Land Laws

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the historical development and objectives of land reforms and land tenure systems in India.

CO2: Analyze laws relating to land revenue administration, tenancy, agricultural lands, and land reforms.

CO3: Examine legal provisions governing land acquisition, ceiling laws, tenancy rights, and ownership rights.

CO4: Interpret statutory provisions relating to transfer, use, and regulation of land under relevant state and central enactments.

CO5: Evaluate legal issues concerning agricultural land, urban land regulation, and land rights.

CO6: Apply land laws to practical disputes involving ownership, tenancy, acquisition, and land administration.

CO7: Develop legal competency in addressing contemporary issues relating to land governance and property rights.

5. Drafting, Pleading and Conveyancing

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the principles, importance, and techniques of legal drafting and pleading.

CO2: Draft plaints, written statements, petitions, affidavits, notices, applications, and other legal documents in accordance with procedural laws.

CO3: Analyze the rules governing pleadings and their application in civil and criminal proceedings.

CO4: Prepare conveyancing documents such as sale deeds, lease deeds, mortgage deeds, gift deeds, partnership deeds, and agreements.

CO5: Develop precision, clarity, and legal accuracy in drafting legal and transactional documents.

CO6: Apply substantive and procedural legal principles while preparing legal instruments and pleadings.

CO7: Demonstrate professional drafting skills essential for litigation, legal practice, corporate transactions, and legal consultancy.

Course Outcome Attributes

The above courses contribute to the attainment of:

- Legal Knowledge and Procedural Competence
- Litigation and Courtroom Skills
- Legal Drafting and Documentation Skills
- Analytical and Critical Thinking
- Labour and Industrial Relations Competence
- Property and Land Law Understanding
- Evidence Evaluation and Advocacy Skills
- Professional Ethics and Responsibility
- Problem Solving and Decision Making
- Employability and Professional Readiness

PRINCIPAL
Bharati Vidyapeeth's
New Law College, Kolhapur

Semester V of LL.B.
Semester IX of B.A. LL.B.

Sr. No.	Courses
1	BNSS (CRPC)
2	Intellectual Property
3	Labour Law –II (Social Securities Laws)
4	Principles of Taxation
5	Moot Court, Pre- Trial Preparation & Participation in Trial Proceedings

Course Outcomes (COs)

1. Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (BNSS)

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the structure, objectives, and significance of criminal procedural law under the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023.

CO2: Analyze the powers and functions of police, magistrates, courts, and other authorities involved in the administration of criminal justice.

CO3: Examine procedural provisions relating to arrest, search, seizure, investigation, bail, charge, inquiry, and trial.

CO4: Interpret legal provisions governing summons, warrants, preventive measures, maintenance proceedings, and criminal appeals.

CO5: Evaluate procedural safeguards ensuring fair trial, protection of accused persons, victims, and witnesses.

CO6: Apply criminal procedural law principles to practical legal problems and case studies.

CO7: Develop professional competence in handling criminal litigation and procedural compliance before criminal courts.

2. Intellectual Property Rights (IPR)

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the concept, nature, objectives, and significance of Intellectual Property Rights in the modern economy.

CO2: Analyze legal principles governing patents, copyrights, trademarks, industrial designs, geographical indications, and trade secrets.

CO3: Examine national and international frameworks relating to intellectual property protection, including the World Intellectual Property Organization and the TRIPS Agreement.

CO4: Interpret statutory provisions relating to registration, ownership, infringement, and remedies under intellectual property laws.

CO5: Evaluate contemporary issues relating to technology, innovation, digital rights, traditional knowledge, and intellectual property protection.

CO6: Apply intellectual property laws to practical legal and commercial situations.

CO7: Develop legal and professional skills necessary for intellectual property management, protection, and dispute resolution.

3. Labour Law – II (Social Security Laws)

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the concept, objectives, and importance of social security legislation in promoting labour welfare.

CO2: Analyze statutory provisions relating to employee compensation, provident fund, gratuity, maternity benefits, employee insurance, and social security measures.

CO3: Examine the legal framework governing workers' welfare, occupational safety, health, and social protection.

CO4: Interpret rights, obligations, and liabilities of employers and employees under social security laws and labour codes.

CO5: Evaluate the role of social security schemes in achieving social justice and economic security for workers.

CO6: Apply social security law principles to practical labour welfare and employment-related issues.

CO7: Develop professional competency in labour law compliance, employee benefits administration, and workplace welfare management.

4. Principles of Taxation

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the basic principles, concepts, and objectives of taxation in India.

CO2: Analyze the constitutional and statutory framework governing direct and indirect taxes.

CO3: Examine the fundamental provisions relating to income tax, goods and services tax (GST), and other taxation laws.

CO4: Interpret legal provisions governing assessment, tax liability, exemptions, deductions, and compliance requirements.

CO5: Evaluate the role of taxation in economic development, public finance, and fiscal policy.

CO6: Apply taxation principles to practical situations involving tax planning, compliance, and dispute resolution.

CO7: Develop analytical and professional skills necessary for taxation practice, consultancy, and legal advisory services.

5. Moot Court, Pre-Trial Preparation and Participation in Trial Proceedings

Course Outcomes (COs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Explain the objectives, procedures, and significance of moot courts and trial advocacy in legal education.

CO2: Conduct legal research and prepare memorials, briefs, and written submissions based on legal issues and case materials.

CO3: Develop advocacy skills through oral arguments, presentation of facts, legal reasoning, and courtroom etiquette.

CO4: Demonstrate competency in pre-trial preparation, including case analysis, drafting of pleadings, framing of issues, and preparation of evidence.

CO5: Participate effectively in simulated court proceedings, client counseling, negotiation, and trial exercises.

CO6: Apply substantive and procedural laws in practical litigation and dispute resolution scenarios.

CO7: Develop professional confidence, ethical conduct, communication skills, and courtroom advocacy essential for legal practice.

Course Outcome Attributes

The above courses contribute to the attainment of:

- Criminal Litigation and Procedural Competence

- Intellectual Property and Innovation Awareness
- Labour Welfare and Social Security Understanding
- Taxation and Financial Law Proficiency
- Legal Research and Advocacy Skills
- Drafting and Courtroom Practice
- Professional Ethics and Responsibility
- Critical Thinking and Problem Solving
- Communication and Leadership Skills
- Employability and Professional Readiness

PRINCIPAL
Bharati Vidyapeeth's
New Law College, Kolhapur