"JANEEV – Movie Club"

"JANEEV – Movie Club"

STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURE (SoP)

1. Introduction

"JANEEV – Movie Club" is a student-centric co-curricular platform established at Bharati Vidyapeeth New Law College, Kolhapur, with the objective of promoting legal awareness, social consciousness, critical thinking, cultural appreciation, and creative expression through the medium of cinema. The club recognizes films as a powerful educational tool that can effectively communicate legal principles, human rights concerns, constitutional values, ethics, governance, and contemporary social issues. Film clubs in educational institutions are commonly used to encourage critical analysis, discussion, cultural awareness, and experiential learning.

The name "JANEEV" signifies awareness, sensitivity, and social responsibility, which are essential attributes of future legal professionals.

2. Vision

To create socially conscious, legally aware, and culturally sensitive law students by utilizing cinema as an instrument of education, reflection, and transformation.

3. Mission

To promote legal literacy, constitutional values, human rights awareness, ethical reasoning, and critical thinking through meaningful film screenings, discussions, reviews, and creative activities.

4. Motto

"Watch • Reflect • Analyze • Transform"

5. Aims

1. To use cinema as an innovative pedagogical tool for legal education.
2. To develop critical and analytical thinking among students.
3. To create awareness regarding constitutional values, justice, equality, and human rights.
4. To encourage interdisciplinary learning through films depicting legal, political, social, economic, and cultural issues.
5. To foster creativity, communication skills, and social responsibility among students.
6. To provide a platform for meaningful dialogue and intellectual engagement.
7. To promote appreciation of cinema as a medium of social change and public education.

6. Objectives

The Movie Club shall strive to:

Academic Objectives

1. Organize screenings of movies, documentaries, and short films related to law, justice, governance, human rights, gender justice, environmental protection, and social issues.
2. Enhance students' understanding of legal concepts through visual learning.
3. Encourage critical analysis of legal and social issues portrayed in films.

4. Promote discussion on constitutional morality, ethics, and professional responsibility.

Skill Development Objectives

5. Develop analytical, communication, and presentation skills.
6. Encourage film review writing, legal commentary, and research-based discussions.
7. Enhance observational and interpretative abilities among students.

Social Objectives

8. Promote awareness regarding social justice, equality, diversity, and inclusion.
9. Encourage empathy and sensitivity toward marginalized and vulnerable sections of society.
10. Foster civic responsibility and democratic values.

Creative Objectives

11. Encourage students to create short films, awareness videos, and documentaries on legal and social themes.
12. Organize competitions relating to film reviews, script writing, poster making, and short film production.

Film clubs in educational institutions often emphasize critical thinking, cultural understanding, social awareness, and discussion-based learning, which align with these objectives.
